

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the beginning I welcome the opportunity to acknowledge my sincere gratitude and thanks to my supervisor, Dr. P. Kotoky, Retd. Professor and Head of the Department of English, Gauhati University for his constant support and help. Without his able guidance this project would not have seen this stage today.

I am thankful to the staff at K. K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, National Library, Kolkata; Mangaldai College Library, Mangaldai for rendering service during my time of collecting study materials. In collection of rare materials I got help from Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Library, Allahabad and I acknowledge my gratitude to the institution.

My particular gratefulness is due to the University Grants Commission for awarding me a Teachers' Fellowship under Faculty Improvement Programme during Ninth plan period.

The teaching faculty, Department of English, Gauhati University enlightened me with many of their new ideas related to literature and culture that directly or indirectly helped me in understanding my subject better. I sincerely express my gratitude to them. I admire the gesture and constant support shown to me, during the preparation of my thesis, by Dipali Devi, Rangia College, Hemanta Kr. Nath, Sivsagar College, Dr. N. R. Mishra, M. Borthakur, Sangita Gogoi, Mangaldai College, Mitali Goswami, Handique Girls' College, Dr. B. Devi Kotoky, retired Lecturer, Pragjyotish College, Diba Baruah, LCB College, Sanjeev Nath, JB College, Jorhat. I welcome the opportunity to thank them all.

I met Professor H. H. Anniah Gowda, Editor of The Literary Half Yearly during my visit to the Institute of Commonwealth and American Studies and English Language, Mysore in connection with my studies. It was my privilege to meet Prof. C. D. Narasimhaiah, Director, Dhanyaloka, Mysore, whose erudite scholarship on Jawaharlal Nehru's literary art has opened a novelty in the realm of Indian English literature. Both the reputed scholars encouraged me in my humble effort. As these two souls are no longer in this world, I pay my tribute to them and pray to God to give them eternal peace.

My brothers Pankaj, Bhupen, and sister Giri and sisters-in-law Namita, Babita always were by my side and I express my sincere thanks to them.

My husband Keshab Sarma, children Kanu and Vini, and my in-laws learnt to bear with my responsibility and engagement with this work. I acknowledge my gratitude to them.

For typing out the thesis I thank Rabin Sarma, PC Global Work, Bharalumukh.

Last but not the least, my parents were the two forces buoying me up, when I felt almost sinking in my effort. This project is a tribute to them.

Place : Guwahati

Date : 17-8-06

(Runjun Devi)