

Baptists in Assam

A Century of Missionary Service

1836-1936

By

VICTOR HUGO SWORD, M.A., Th.D.

*SPL misc 232
6827*

G6827

MANGALDAI COLLEGE CENTRAL LIBRARY

Conference Press
Chicago, Illinois

Copyrighted 1935
by
CONFERENCE PRESS

CONTENTS

I.	ARVA, FLUMINA, MONTES	15
	Geographical features — climate of Assam — ethnological study — indigenous languages — religions.
II.	PRE-BRITISH RULE	23
	Early history not available — growth of Hinduism — political unrest — surrender of Assam to the British — obscurity of southern valley.
III.	BRITISH RULE	30
	Difficulties in the way — uncontrollable hill tribes — the numerous hill tribes.
IV.	INTRODUCTION OF CHRISTIANITY	34
	Influence of Wm. Carey's mission — appeal of Assam — the going of Mr. Rae — Krishna Pal — success of the mission — the coming of the American Baptists.
V.	UP THE BRAHMAPUTRA	41
	American Baptists enter Assam with British army — Nathan Brown and his appointment — the remoteness of Sadiya.
VI.	UNFOLDING REALITIES	47
	New facts discovered — establishment of a mission — production of literature — educational program.
VII.	TRYING EXPERIENCES	53
	Great need for missionaries on the field — journey up the Brahmaputra in the rains — the death of Thomas — landing at Sadiya.
VIII.	THE CALL OF THE HILLS	59
	Jaipur as a missionary center — Jaipur settled in 1839 — Bronson moves to the Naga Hills — the work on the plains — the coming of the Barkers and Miss Bronson.
IX.	THE DEMAND OF THE PLAINS	67
	Nidhi the first Assamese convert — Barker's plea to occupy Sibsagar — importance of Sibsagar as a mission center — Browns and Cutters move to Sibsagar — the growth of the Christian work — the occupation of Nowgong by Bronson — Barker's settlement at Gauhati.

X.	ORGANIZATION	77
	Need of an indigenous leadership recognized — organization of National churches — first missionary conference — economic conditions of national Christians.
XI.	CRISES	83
	Depletion of missionary force — the closing of the Nowgong orphanage — resignation of Nathan Brown — the effects of the Indian mutiny — Bronson's enforced furlough — effects of civil war in America.
XII.	THE GAROS	91
	Another near-reversal of plans — early beginnings among the Garos — Mr. Stoddard appointed missionary to the Garos — appointment of Mason and Phillips — educational development — literary work — medical work.
XIII.	THE NAGAS	105
	The Aos — the Angamis — the Lhotas — the Semas — Manipur State.
XIV.	THE DAY OF THE JUDGES	119
	Lack of progress among the Assamese — appointment of a missionary to the immigrants — opening of North Lakhimpur by Firth, Dibrugarh by Paul, Golaghat by Swanson — others.
XV.	AFTER ONE HUNDRED YEARS	127
	Growth of the Christian community — importance of schools — development of literature — medical activities — property and stations.
XVI.	SUMMARY	144
	The evaluation of work done — Carey's influence — the assistance of government officials — the period of sowing — Assam as a means to an end — the value of education.
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	148
	NOTES ON SOURCE REFERENCES	151
	INDEX	157
	CHART OF MISSIONARY SERVICE	